

Florida Small Farms and Alternative Enterprises CONFERENCE

July 27-29, 2012

Educating Entrepreneurs to Strengthen Local Food Systems

Osceola Heritage Park • 1875 Silver Spur Lane • Kissimmee, FL 34744

www.conference.ifas.ufl.edu/smallfarms

Sessions include:

- Beginning Farmer and Rancher
- New Markets and Regulations
- Food Safety
- Good Bug, Bad Bug ID
- Horticulture
- Hydroponics
- Livestock and Pastured Poultry
- Mushrooms
- Organic and Sustainable Farming
- Farm Renewable Energy Opportunities
- The Business of Farming

Who Should Attend?

Anyone interested in becoming a part of, and strengthening the small farm community in Florida

Come see

- Keynote address
- Featured Florida farmers
- Trade show with suppliers and resources
- Farm tours and networking
- Live animal exhibits
- Saturday evening social, and
- Local foods

Early registration ends July 9, 2012

For more information contact:

Mandy Stage, Conference Coordinator
352.392.5930 • mstage@ufl.edu

Florida Small Farms and Alternative Enterprises
CONFERENCE

