

Winter Forages for North Florida !

Join us for tours of our new experimental breeding lines

Visit with your local beef and dairy producers, as well as county and state Ag, Livestock, and Soils specialists

Program Highlights:

- Overview of winter forage systems at White Oak Dairy, LaFayette County , and Shenandoah Dairy, Suwannee County
- Discussions on winter forage varieties, production, and quality
- Side by side comparisons of over 20 grass forage species and varieties
- Check out some unique, oat varieties, including cosaque and black oat
- Use of Controlled-release N as pop-up

Date: March 9th, 2018

Location: White Oak Dairy, Mayo, F (corner of State Hwy 53 and CR 350.

Time: 10:00 am- 2:00 pm

Registration: No registration required

Contacts: Suwannee County Extension Office
(386) 362-2771 (Jane Griffin), LaFayette
County Extension Office (386) 294-
1279, (Chris Vann) or Columbia County
Extension Office (386) 752-5384
(Paulette Tomlinson)

